2. [redacted] I talked to [redacted] about
S. 782, Senator Ervin's bill to protect civilian employees of the U.S.
Government against unwarranted invasion of privacy, which was reported to the full Judiciary Committee of the Senate on Tuesday. From his rather extensive dealings with Mr. P. J. Mode, Counsel to the Subcommittee, [redacted] feels that there is little else that can be accomplished at this time. [redacted] has also talked to Mr. Robert E.
Hampton, Chairman of the Civil Service Commission, who indicated that the Commission might recommend veto to the President should it pass both houses.
